

Good morning,

As a representative of KIVO Plastic Verpakkingen, I am pleased to provide this testimonial for EU Poultry, reflecting our partnership's significant value and the mutual benefits it has brought to our operations.

Our collaboration with EU Poultry has been exemplary, characterized by efficient communication, prompt responses, and a professional approach to business that stands out in the industry. The ease of contact and the speed at which EU Poultry operates have significantly contributed to the smooth execution of our projects, enhancing our ability to meet deadlines and maintain high-quality standards.

We have never encountered issues related to payments or any other operational aspects, highlighting the reliability and trustworthiness of EU Poultry as a business partner. This level of professionalism and integrity is what we seek in all our partnerships, and EU Poultry has consistently met and exceeded these expectations.

Furthermore, the benefits of our partnership are not limited to operational efficiencies but extend to the shared values we hold regarding sustainability and innovation in our respective fields. Working together, we have been able to leverage these strengths for mutual growth and success.

We hereby agree for this testimonial to be used by EU Poultry for marketing purposes and further sharing. We look forward to continuing and deepening our partnership in the years to come.

Met vriendelijke groet,
Best regards,
